Message

May I express my sincere congratulations to the annual staff, the sponsor, and all others who have worked so tirelessly in producing this splendid volume. May your efforts be repaid by the consolation of having done well your task, and by the pleasant memories which it will bring in years to come.

To each student of the Roosevelt Schools, may I say that I have enjoyed working with you this school year. May you never be content with your present status but ever strive to grow in stature, morals, and knowledge. Let us dedicate the services of this school toward growth in these things.

The Senior class has been very busy this year making money and preparing for the Senior trip that we will take in the spring after we finish school. We have undertaken several means to try to raise money, and have had pretty good success. If things go as planned we will go to Colorado. We have had several parties this year and we all enjoyed them very much. We signed up for the club house for January 1 of 1954 for an ex-senior party. The senior class has enjoyed this last year of its high school career very much. Thanks very much to all who helped to make this so pleasant for every one of us.

The Class Prophecy of the 1952-'53 Seniors

The toothless old crony thoughtfully stirred the tea leaves in the bottom of her cup, and I leaned forward eagerly to hear what she could tell me about the class of 53 ten years hence. She gently shook the cup, and with a great sigh, began to talk:

In the tea leaves, I see a large store-a super-super market-wait-I see a chain of them all over the country owned and operated by Bobby Dodds.

And along with that I see Floyd Smith making money in great quantities demonstrating and selling his newest invention-a quiet noisemaker-in Dodds stores.

Julia Collep's name next shows in the tea leaves-she seems to be happily engaged in managing a household, including three lively youngsters, and doing the bookkeeping for her husband's vast cotton estate.

Our congressman from this district, who is noted for his eloquent speech making, is none other than Gerald Nixon.

Gerald is ably assisted in his great work by his secretary, Mary Ledford, who has risen up the ladder of success and is now head secretary in Washington.

My tea leaves now spell out the name of Jimmy Balios; ah, Jimmy is being named Mr. Basketball of 1963 by the Herlem Globe Trotters.

Jerre Bradshaw has just been given a special assignment by the Highway Department. He will now personally paint all the "slow, men working" signs.

I seem to hear church music-yes, now I know-it is a church service being conducted in the largest church in New York; the minister is the now famous Brother Wendall Dennis.

Brother Dennis has an especially charming and efficient secretary-known far and wide for her unusual ability-could it be---it is; Doris Wallace.

There are two of your group who never did stray far from home.

Peggy Price is now private secretary to Mr. Williams, and in line to be Superintendent of Schools when Mr. Williams resigns in 1963.

Jackie Curry is now foreman of the fleet of 20 busses at Roosevelt School.

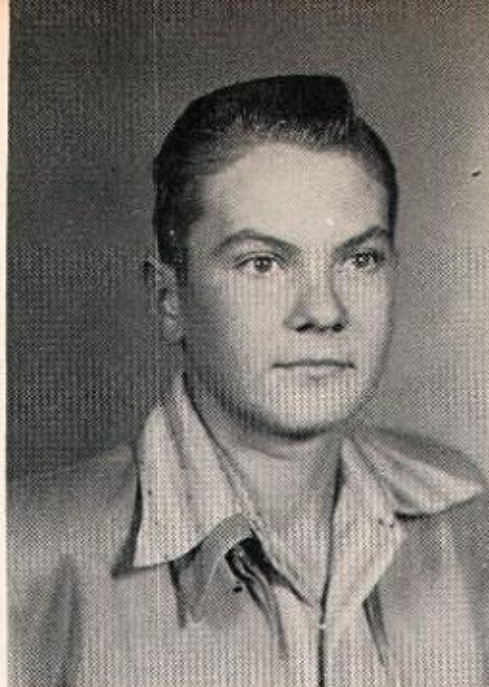

Lavonne has been awarded the telephone award for the sweetest voice of all operators the country wide.

The Junior class had a very successful Junior Play this year. The cast was made up of every student in the class. We made approximately $155.

We, also, sold Christmas cards and greeting cards. The proceeds from this sale was $101. We sold these cards for about six weeks.

We have plans started for the Junior-Senior banquet and hope it turns out as well as the other things we have undertaken.

The class consisted of fifteen members. There are seven boys and eight girls.

The sophomores of 1952-53 began their activities with a football party. Our second party was a skating and show party.

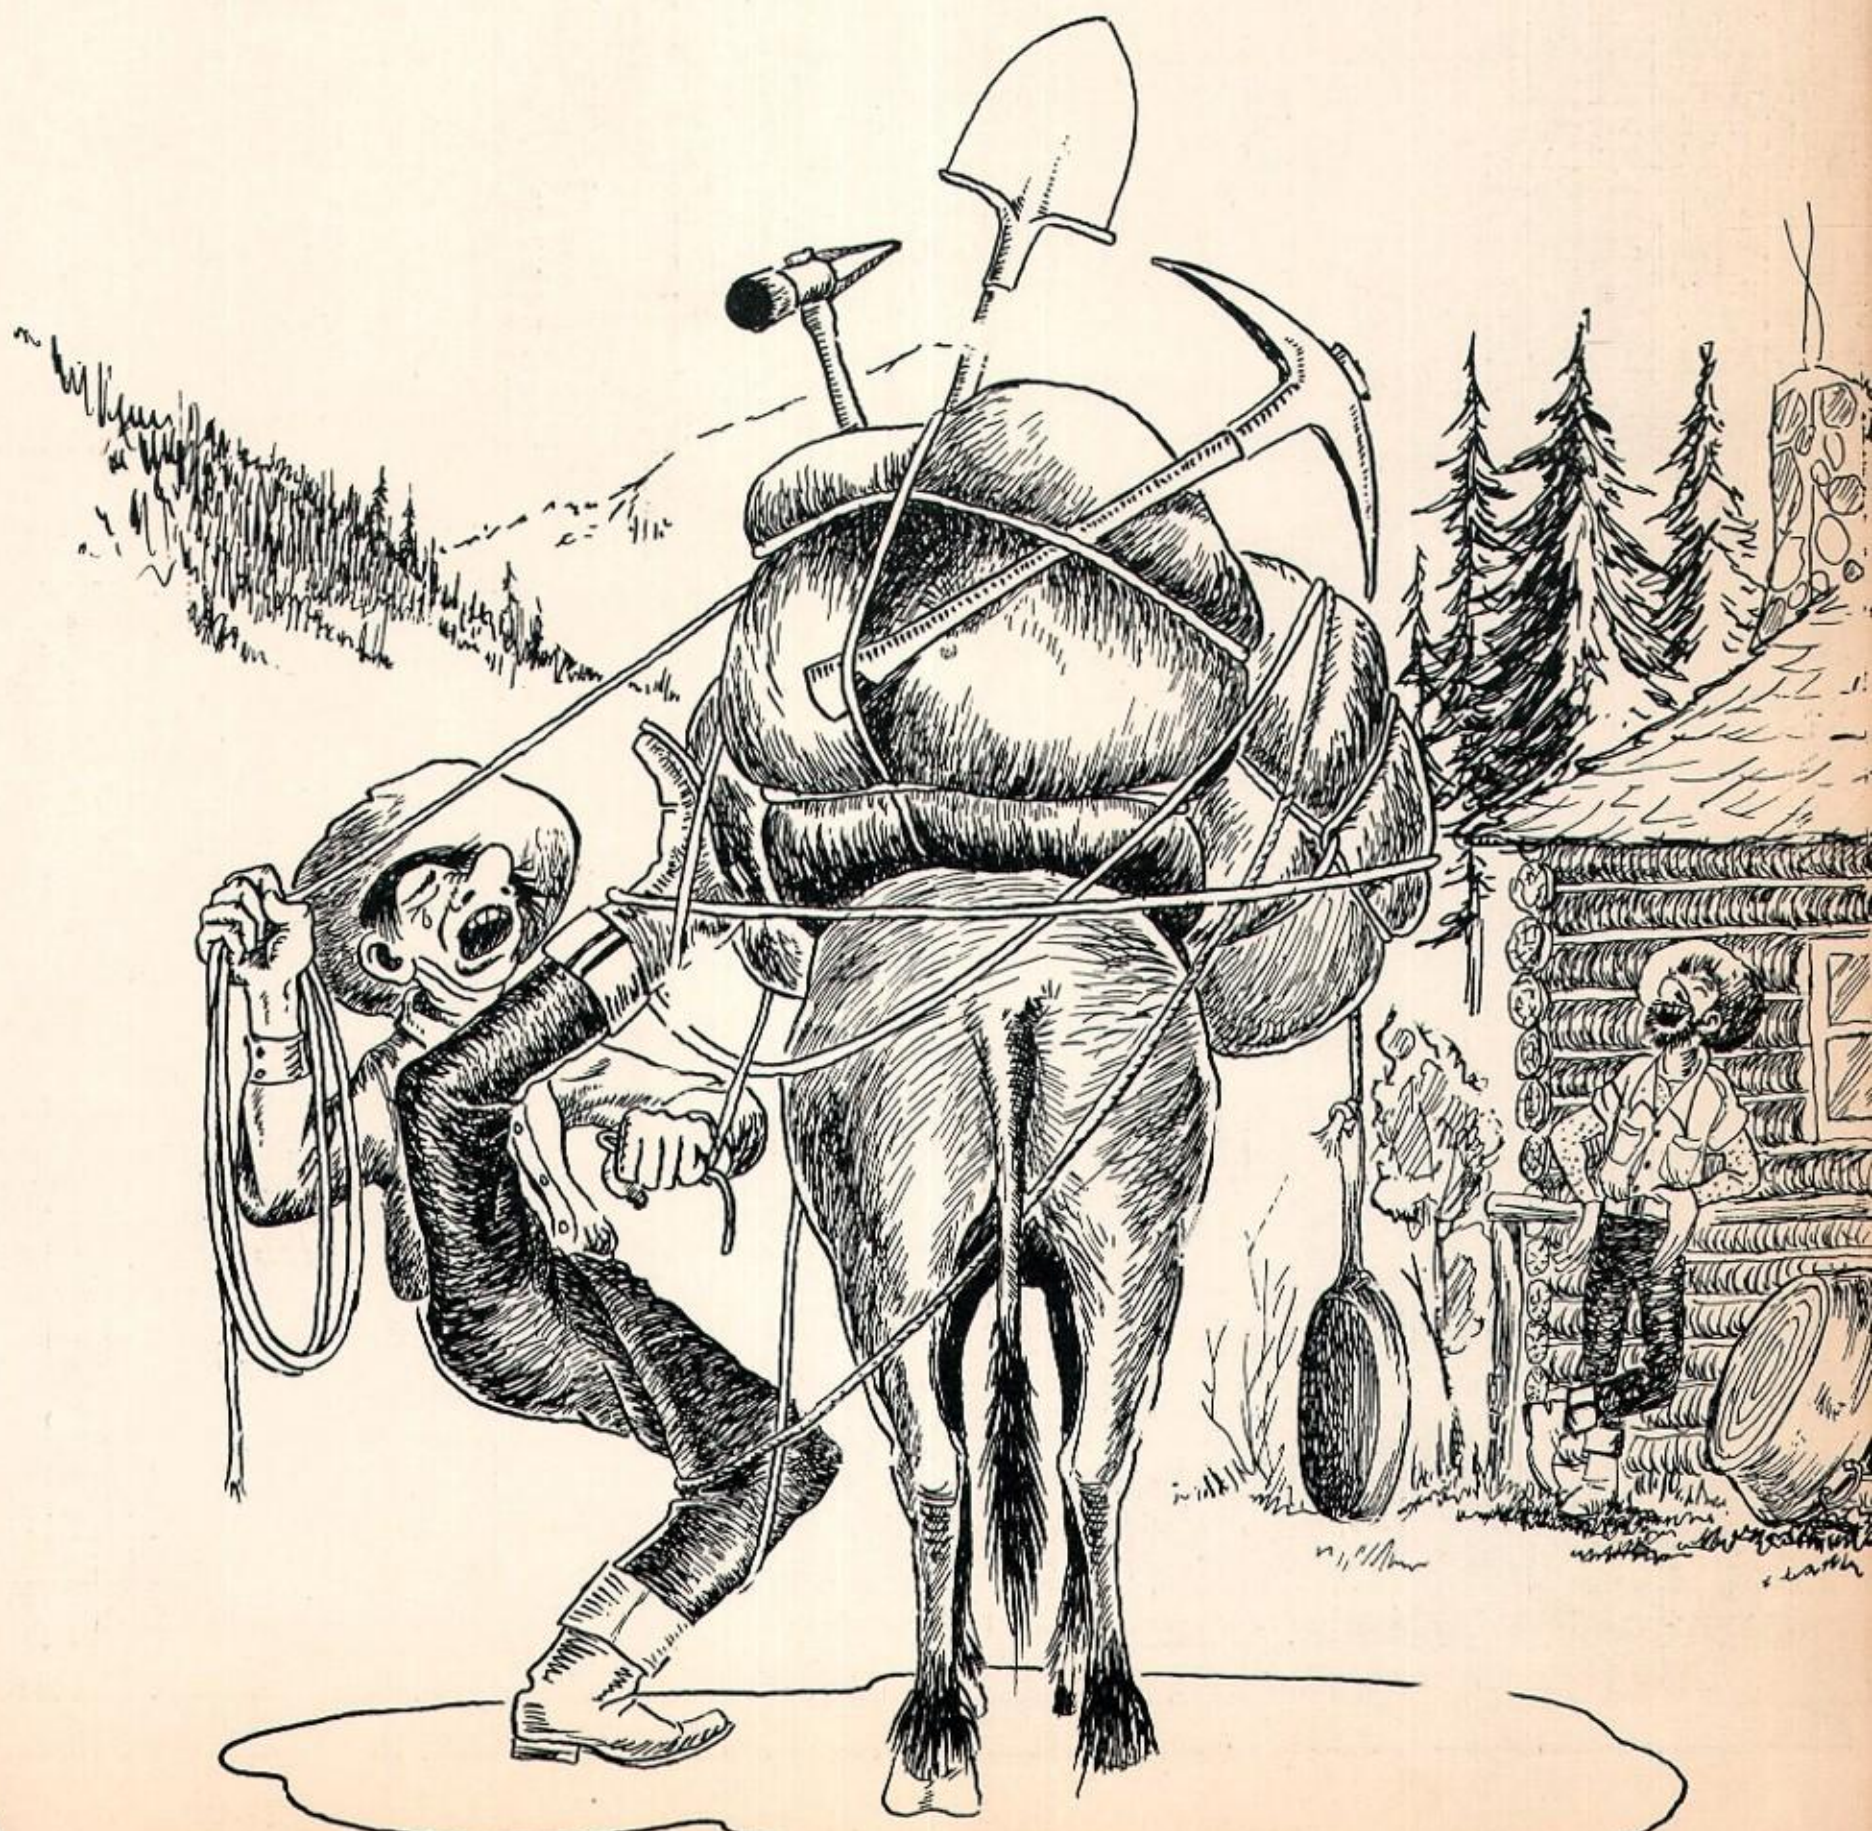

At Christmas the class bought Christmas decorations, candy, fruit and nuts for a needy family in Lubbock.

Our financial support is supplied by monthly dues collected from the members.

There are thirty two members in our class, eighteen girls and fourteen boys.

The Sponsor this year is Mr. H. L. Hennigan.

We the Freshman Class were duly introduced into the mysteries of high school last fall.

First came initiation night which was a lot of fun, well most of it. Then a whole day when we a freshman, were lowly worms. Since then we have risen in our own estimation and we hope in the estimation of the upper classmen and our teachers. During the year we organized and put on a series of skits as a Thanksgiving Day Assembly program. We also were first in collection and participation in the March of Dimes Drive.

The Annual Staff At Work

The Annual Staff have been very busy this year getting pictures and snapshots. We want to express our sincere thanks to all the teachers and sponsors. Without your support this annual would have been impossible. This annual is financed by selling of ads to different firms so that it will not cost the individual very much. We have had a very good staff this year and we think that we have done a good job. Our cover was designed by the art staff this year, this is the first year that we have had the opportunity to design our own cover. This is the first year that we have had triplicate copy sheet to work with, that is when we made the first design on the top sheet it was automatically transmitted to a dummy page.

The "EAGLE" is a weekly mimeograph publication which is issued every Friday except exam weeks. Subscriptions for the paper are $1.00 for one year or $.60 a semester. Single copies are sold for five cents each. The news is collected throughout the entire school. Each class is responsible for its own news. Some having reporters to write their news. We also trade papers with other schools in this vicinity. General articles, such as jokes, poems and other items are taken from these different papers and certain magazines. Some articles are written by members of the student body or the faculty. The Senior girls are the typists for the paper, each having a certain page to type. We have truly enjoyed publishing the paper this year.
